

COL. ROOSEVELT THUNDERS DENUNCIATION OF SMITH

Tammany Hall Scheme to Rule Nation Charged as He Urges Tolerance in Own Party

TOPEKA (Kan.) Jan. 30. (AP)—Carrying into the Middle West his fight on Gov. Smith of New York, whom he declared the Democratic party "is preparing to run for President," Col. Theodore Roosevelt charged here tonight that, through the New York executive, Tammany Hall is seeking control of the White House and the nation.

Coupled with his assault on Gov. Smith, the former Assistant Secretary of the Navy struck at religious intolerance, advocating a plank in the Republican platform declaring that "no man shall be given or denied public office because of his religious beliefs."

"We want no Senator Hefflin in the Republican party," he said in reference to the Democratic Senator from Alabama, who has attacked Gov. Smith and the Roman Catholic Church.

PARTY PRAISED

Col. Roosevelt, addressed 1,500 Republicans at the principal speakers of the annual dinner of the Kansas Day Club.

The son of the former president, lauded accomplishments of the administration since 1921, assailed huge campaign expenditures, and declared party declarations of war and prohibition unconstitutional.

He turned his gun on policies of the Democratic party.

But he reserved the heaviest fire for the Democratic organization in New York City, which he declared, corrupt, and the man who defeated him for the Governorship of New York in 1926.

Col. Roosevelt declared Tammany Hall has changed little from the days of "Boss" Tweed, that it has subverted New York City and State, no longer is it "gathered itself for a further effort, an attempt on the nation."

And Gov. Smith, he added, is a product and a leader of Tammany Hall, who has stood by the party as a member of the organization.

PINS OF OMISSION

He said he does not question the personal integrity of Gov. Smith, but that the Governor is guilty at least of "sins of omission," because he did not set when it lay in his power to prevent asserted graft by Tammany Hall.

He said he is confident the voters will accept the new challenge of the organization, which did not appear in Tammany's day, when "American spirit" was born and Tammany and all that stood for was driven back to the haunts on Fourteenth street."

Taking up Republican problems, Col. Roosevelt declared the party

SAN RAFAEL, Jan. 30. (Exclusive)—"Dear teacher: Please excuse the absence of eighty-six youngsters today, because the Fidos of San Rafael have to be vaccinated. Sincerely yours, Weary Yester."

The Marin County Board of Supervisors started it when they passed an ordinance requiring all dogs to be vaccinated or be shot on sight. Then the veterinarian announced that Marin county had thousands of dogs whose owners were youngsters who didn't have the $2.40 fee for the treatment and offered to hold free clinics until all the dog residents of the county had been vaccinated.

Today saw the first of these clinics when eighty-six dogs were vaccinated.

"We want no Senator Hefflin in the Republican party. As a party should make such a declaration in our platform."

"The King knew that the sudden and unexpected loss of this valuable life will be deeply felt throughout the whole empire by the army, and more especially by Lord Haig's old comrades to whose welfare he had devoted himself since the close of the 'Great war.'

FIGHTING FAMILY

The military achievements of Earl Haig, who consumed several years of his life serving in the ancient and aristocratic family of Haig of Bremerside, in Berwickshire. Like so many other clans, they rose from the quantern of Bruce and Balclutha.

Summing the work of the Republican administrations since 1921, Col. Roosevelt said:

"It is not a record of great sum in elections and primaries is a separate danger to a republic. As a national party, we must face this."

"We must curb the practice national and thereby set an example for the rest of the world," he said.

"We must set an example for the rest of the world," he said.

"We must decide either to repeal or amend the Volstead Act or 'set aside' the 18th Amendment."

"We must decide whether to give up the 18th Amendment or to give up the 19th."

DEMOCRATS ACCUSED

Reviewing the Democratic administration's record from 1919 to 1921, Col. Roosevelt charged there was a "policy of graft and robbery, waste, taxes incurred without let or hindrance. Every record of Democratic control has had a period of depression."

In their foreign policy the Democrats "endeavored to deliver our country to a bond slave to foreign diplomacy," he said.

"The gravest of his charges against the Democratic party, he charged, is the impenetrable candidacy of Gov. Smith.

"To you in the West Tammany Hall is a household word," he said. "To us in New York it means the same thing that greatest minister political machine has held New York City in its grip. It signs have been and is Panhandle and plumb. For Tweed was the most foul the day of the houses have fainted at the expense of the public."

MILK ACCUSATION

Col. Roosevelt repeated charges that "Tammany politicians" had a hand several years ago in the sale of diluted milk for the benefit of New York City and that the graft went unchecked until public clamor just before election forced the Democrats' hands."

When he laid at the door of Tammany Hall the asserted waste of millions of dollars in the construction of school buildings and "graft by millions" in connection with newer buildings in the boroughs, Gov. Smith declared that his chief hope for 1922 was that his fellow Kansas delegates at the convention in Kansas City had the best candidate for President.

Col. Roosevelt, an avowed candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, was present and was given an ovation by the more than 500 guests when he rose to speak.

Declaring that his chief hope for 1922 was that his fellow Kansas delegates at the convention in Kansas City had the best candidate for President, he urged the right to speak for the cause you have at heart, to vote for what you think is right, to further an organization that you believe is important.

He had agreed to become the "favorite son" of Kansas Republicans.

course, it is odd that three holes in one should be in the same course the same week, but the real increase in the number of holes in one is due to the terrific increase in golf courses and enormous additions to the player ranks.

years ago, the Los Angeles, Annandale and clubs were about the only standard bearers of golf and the ancient game in Southern California. contrast the 1928 issue of Golf Courses of Los Angeles published by the Junior Chamber of Commerce lists eighty-one clubs within the jurisdiction of Southern California Golf Association.

we play golf well enough to ever be sure of a hole in the hole to the tee. Golf is played over an uneven terrain, there is always an element of luck to every shot.

more than the terrain enters into the shot. For example, Doc of the Palm Verde club laid a ball on the ninth green in two. We're reasonably sure it's a four.

THIS WOMAN
FOUND RELIEFAfter Long Suffering by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

In a little town of the Middle West, was a discouraged woman. For four years she had been in a state of poor health that she could not stoop to put on her own shoes. Unable to do her work, unable to go out and enjoy a friendly chat with her neighbors, life seemed dark indeed to Mrs. Daugherty.

Then one day, a booklet was left at her front door. Idly she turned the pages. Soon she was reading with quickened interest. The little booklet was filled with letters from women in conditions similar to hers who had found better health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I began taking the Vegetable Compound," Mrs. Daugherty writes, "and after I took the third bottle, I found relief. I am on my eleventh bottle and I feel better than I have ever been before and feel like a different woman. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to everyone I see who has trouble like mine. I am willing to answer any letter from women asking about the Vegetable Compound." Mrs. Daugherty, 4306 Orchard Ave., Muscatine, Iowa.

COOLIDGE WARNS BUDGET

Government Economy Needed

the facts warranted and the course to say when the facts warranted.

Following the President's Director Lord declared that while there will be a great burden on the budget of the economy, there is an irreducible minimum of expenditure below which the government cannot go.

"We may possibly have reached that minimum," he added. "The country grows and develops. The bigger the country the bigger the operating costs. But as long as there is a general employment not fully come into the picture, the cost of government service, as long as there is an article of Federal supply wanted and not completely and properly utilized, as long as there is a great many people not profitably employed, the drive for constructive economy will go on. A real relief has been afforded the budget by the conditions which make possible relief of the people. They were the result of carefully conducted Federal business. The executive branch and the legislative branch have coordinated their efforts to perform this task.

PEOPLE CONCERNED

The people are concerned in tax reduction. In everything that makes for economy, they are concerned. In slightly more than six years we have seen three reductions in taxes. A real relief has been afforded the budget by the conditions which make possible relief of the people. They were the result of carefully conducted Federal business.

The executive branch and the legislative branch have coordinated their efforts to perform this task.

"I have the courage—you may call it temerity—to hope for the elimination of any necessary expenditure. I am urging and expecting the elimination of every item that can be cut without detriment to the public service."

TEXT OF ADDRESS

The text of the President's address:

Members of the Government's Business Organization:

In spite of the fact that this is the fourteenth of the semiannual budget session, we are still wondering why they are held and just what their purpose may be. Nearly every one connects them with economy in government operations. But there is not in reality an answer. The orderly and proportionate use of the resources of the people of the United States is certainly being sought. But the only result of this is the name of second plating our main object.

I have expressed myself in favor of further moderate tax reduction. I have indicated the maximum reduction we can afford. There is no particular reason for this recommendation. I hope there will be none in its final consideration by the Congress. But it should not arise from the wise policy established, and thus far rigidly followed, of keeping our expenditures within our receipts.

MANAGUA (Nicaragua), Jan. 30. (Exclusive)—Maj. Rose Rowell, sight commander of the marine air forces in Nicaragua, who successfully led the air attack on Ocosi last July, and who planned the recent air raid against El Chipote, was almost compelled to make a forced landing in the midst of fire. Bandits had lit the height of the latest battle when his engine stalled at an altitude of only 500 feet. It was only through clever maneuvering of the engine and adjusting the carburetor while the plane was receiving the full fire of the bandits that Maj. Rowell was able to fly to Tegucigalpa and investigate the trouble.

Maj. Rowell was flying a new combat ship and discovered that a common house fly had forced itself into the engine. The bandits had been shot, but were relieved at his appearance.

The major said today that since the first of the year, the combat has been between the bandits direct from the bandits, and he had a miracle that no casualties have resulted.

Small groups of bandits are seen daily by the aviator. The largest group since El Chipote was sighted yesterday near Tepicapa. It consisted of 200 bandits, moving south, evidently being driven back through knowledge that it was impossible to hold the patrols along the mountain border.

YOUTH TRAINING AIM OF CHURCH

Episcopalian Seek to Aid Spirit of Devotion

Junior Church Exhibited in Diocesan Meeting

Coadjutor Presides During Illness of Bishop

Reverence for God and love are of more value to a child than knowledge of the number of Philistines slain by Samson, according to progressive religious leaders who addressed the opening session of the Episcopal diocesan convention, conducted yesterday at St. Paul's Cathedral.

Evidence of the movement in the Episcopal Church toward more intensive religious education of youth was provided by Rev. L. L. Cain, who, with his children from the Trinity Church at Covina, gave a demonstration of his methods of conducting "The Junior Church."

Admitting the stupid was essential, he said, the Sunday school, Mr. Cain said that in his opinion a regular church service for children is preferable, since it develops the spirit of devotion through the presentation of familiar stories, then through accumulation of facts.

CHILDREN'S ALTAR

Rev. Harry Seal, dean of St. Paul's, exhibited to the delight of the delegates, the newly established "Children's Corner," with its diminutive altar and cross, small Bibles, books and action figures, while children were invited to come at any time during the day, for a few minutes, of meditation.

Rev. David Covell, educational secretary, stated that a movement is on foot to take motion pictures of great church events and exhibit them in connection with missionary, social service, and other educational work. Discussing the growth of the Young People's Fellowship, Dr. Covell said that organization has grown from 500 members three years ago, to a membership of 1,500 now.

Speakers at last night's session included Dr. Walter Doster, president of Whittier College, who spoke on "Youth and the Church," and Mrs. Mary A. Allen, who addressed the more extensive program of education for adults, in the interests of both parents and their children.

BISHOP STILL ILL

Although Bishop Joseph Johnson is reported to be recovering from his illness, it was announced that he will not be present at the opening session and Dr. W. R. Stevens, conductor bishop, will preside at all the sessions.

The business session of the West End Auxiliary will be conducted at the cathedral house at 10 a.m. today. Other sessions of the auxiliary will be conducted today at 2 p.m. when Bishop Morton of Utah and Dr. Stevens, will preside. At 7 p.m. today the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will meet for supper at the cathedral house and will conduct the annual election.

Tomorrow's program will be presided over by the annual address of Bishop Stevens at 9:30 a.m., a luncheon at the Windsor Tea Room at 1 p.m., a service of intercession at the Windsor Tea Room at 3:30 p.m., and a mass meeting at the cathedral house at 7 p.m. At the mass meeting, to which the public is invited, Bishop Morton will speak, negro choir of Los Angeles will sing, and Rev. W. L. Glogors will discuss "Racial Work."

PLUNGE FOR WESTLAKE PARK ASKED

Company Seeks Permit to Erect Building Containing 1000 Dressing Rooms

The Westlake Plaza Company proposed to the Park Commission yesterday that it be allowed to erect a large plume of Italian design on the grounds of the proposed park. Under the terms of the proposed plan, the company would pay an annual rental to the city for twenty-five years and at the end of that period would turn the structure over to the city free of charge. The entire proposal took the suggestion under consideration.

According to the offer, the company would be permitted to submit the plume at a charge varying between 5 cents and 15 cents and charges for adults would be from 25 to 50 cents. The contention building would be located on Seventh street, midway between Alvarado and Park View streets and would contain tiled pools and 1000 dressing rooms. The plan calls for a building 80 feet wide and 100 feet wide and forty feet high. David M. Croft and C. L. Langley represented the plume company.

Hymnal Offers Single Clue in Mystery Death

Husband Sought for Year on Failure-to-Provide Charge Gets Two-Year Jolt

A name scrawled in a hymn-book which was found clutched in his lifeless hand is the only clue police had found yesterday to the identity of the man found dead on the Union Pacific railway tracks near the Sixth Street crossing Sunday. The name, which was written in an almost illegible hand, is believed to be "Genaro Falden" and is the common name of a man who may be the name of the man whose body lies at the County Morgue. The book was opened at a page which contained a hymn.

Examination of the body is said to have revealed that the canvas strip about the neck was not tight enough to cause death by strangulation and police are working on the theory that it was a case of suicide. How and why the body was placed on the railroad track is yet to be determined.

METAL MARKET HOLDING STEADY

Volume of Business Fair at Unchanged Prices

Copper Cut Occasionally by Custom Smelters

Outlook for Zinc Continues to Show Weakness

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS, Editor, The Mining Journal, Phoenix.

The metal market is quiet, having neither extensive or slow buying, merely traveling along at a good average gait. Copper stays strong at 13.50 to the producers, although there is a 10-cent drop in the market, the market is still at 13.50 under the market. Lead sticks close to 6.50 and zinc at 5.85.

The present copper situation provides two distinct and separate markets which is that of the customer smelters who is to convert their metal immediately into cash, and the market of the producer who is refusing to sell his metal until he gets a higher price. Thus there will be a full inherent variation in quotations, the lower smelter is getting and the higher smelter will pay the bill.

The custom smelter, however, can supply but a small percentage of the copper necessary under normal buying and the consumers are turning to the producer and pay his price so that the bulk of the copper is normally being sold at the price asked by the producer and he is not at all inclined to cut prices to get the business.

LEAD STREADY
There has been some price cutting in the lead market coming largely from people who bought a long while ago on speculation, but the quotations are still at the same price as was not large and it was immediately snapped up. Lead sales are generally slow with no great interest in the market, current quotations remaining the same.

The tendency in zinc is to drop further in price and it is evident that the producers are not looking for a much better market. Zinc quotations are at the same level as May and June delivery are 5.85. Some zinc is now coming into the market from Montana production and this is having the effect of holding the price down. The drop in the price will necessitate the shutting down of some of the plants even though it is an expensive procedure as the price is at rock bottom.

It is significant that it has been the United States mines which have suffered from metal conditions during the last year. In copper, lead and zinc there has been a marked drop in the price of lead in the United States showed a decrease in production. In copper the output from United States mines totaled 500,150 tons or a decrease of 45,000 tons from the previous year. In lead there was 18,000 tons less produced in the United States than in 1926, while there was 30,000 tons more of lead produced in the United States than there was an increase of 5,000 tons and a decrease in the United States of 4 per cent.

MARKETING ORDERLY
Practically all the writers on the copper situation bring forward the statement that the greatest progress made in the copper industry during the last year has been in the orderly marketing and illustrating by the progress made by the Copper Exporters, Inc. and the organization of the Copper Institute for the purpose of getting the best interests of the domestic copper situation.

Clinton H. Crane, president of St. Joseph Lead Company, summarizes the 1927 lead situation as follows: "The world production greater than the maximum in 1926, a diminution in the United States output, second, an apparent consumption greater than the output, third, the American consumption was a great deal less; third, London lead prices approximately 20 per cent less than during the year before and 40 per cent less than the peak of 1926. Fourth, the development and discovery of new lead deposits of major importance; fifth, the introduction of no serious substitutes for the chief metal, sixth, the increased use of the available supply of lead ore that can be profitably mined and treated, due to continued development and application of improved mining and treatment processes. It does not seem probable that the lead price in 1928 will be lower than during 1927, in fact, it is generally believed that the market has turned the corner and that the immediate outlook is better."

ZINC SITUATION
Regarding the zinc situation, Secretary S. Tuthill, secretary of the American Zinc Institute, says: "Zinc, in the United States, is undergoing its second readjustment since the World War. The first was the bringing of a war-time production down to a peace-time consumption basis. Now it is the share of the supply which has been marked down. There has been a marked tonnage increase in zinc recovered from complex western ores as a result of improved metallurgical processes. Overproduction, due to the two principal branches of the United States zinc industry and over-production in the industry makes a buyers' market. Although 1928 was the lowest year in many years of the old order, it has occurred in recent years that one cannot be charged with Pollyannism if one expresses the belief that business for the year will, on the whole, be satisfactory."

It is fortunate that the summing up of the metal situation for 1928 is the best of any year since 1926. The year is beginning under much more favorable circumstances than existed at any time during 1927 and the progress made during the year will be of great assistance to the market as to encourage a better feeling for the prospects of the next year.

Hollywood, goes the iron-grated cell in token of his being the recipient of the largest fine ever levied against an offender in Judge Bow-en's Pomona Court.Hawkins drew down a $1000 fine with a $1000 fine alternative when he pleaded guilty to possession and transportation of liquor as a result of his apprehension Sunday, when police officers found two suits of clothing and a bottle of whisky in the machine which he was driving in company with Samuel Geige,
33 years of age, of 2727 Francis Avenue, Los Angeles. Geige is being held on $1000 bail pending his trial on the same charges, having demanded a trial by jury.Hawkins remained in the local jail as late hour today awaiting the payment of his fine by friends.

MORRIS HUNTED IN ROSEN CASE

Accuser of Mrs. Lowe and Sikes Missing

Regarded as Key Witness in Robbery Mystery

Clew Lacking in Murder of Farmer Page Aide

Investigation of the murder of William Rosen, who was witness for the State in the prosecution of Mrs. Ollie Lowe and Bryan Sikes for an asserted $15,000 jewel robbery, yesterday turned to another mystery. The mysterious bundle was found by F. J. Woodbridge, 1710 Taft avenue, as he was driving through the park.

The bundle is Fred "Iron Duke" Morris, whose confinement led to the arrest of Mrs. Lowe and Sikes and recovery of the asserted stolen jewelry.

In the same conversation, the State charged, Sikes pointed out that Lowe and the Rosen man were investigating the robbery, stating that all wanted a 5 per cent cut on the loot

'MURDER' BUNDLE SHOCKING

Discovery of a bulky package wrapped in a blood-stained sheet in Griffith Park early yesterday caused Hollywood police and detectives to seek another murderer. The mysterious bundle was found by F. J. Woodbridge, 1710 Taft avenue, as he was driving through the park.

He told police he drove past a general store and studied it from a distance, but dared not approach it too closely. When Capt. Baldwin and a squad of detectives investigated, they found it contained five dead jackrabbits.

They were taken to the city pound where the dog prisoner had a feast plus the insurance money she would collect for the dogs.

The robbery with which Mrs. Lowe and Sikes are charged occurred at the home of Mrs. J. C. Cummings, 685 South Highland avenue, April 1, 1927. A dozen distinguished guests were stripped of jewels valued at $15,000, among the victims being Mrs. Lowe.

While the deputy sheriff was secretly seeing Morris, Capt. William J. Bright, head of the Sheriff's homicide investigation detail, announced that as yet he has found no definite clew to the identity of the thief, although he was a star witness against Mrs. Lowe and Sikes has added to this his silence.

Within three years every motion picture made by the principal studios on the west coast will be entirely with incandescent lights and the days of Kleig eyes and other evils of the present lighting system will be done with forever, according to John Arnold, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer cameraman, as the result of experiments conducted at the Warners.

Hospital Rates to be Discussed at Dinner Today

Hospital rates from the viewpoint of hospital superintendents and executives will be the principal subject of discussion at the annual meeting and dinner of the Southern California Hospital Council this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the May Louise.

According to G. W. Olson, superintendent of the California Lutheran Hospital, treasurer of the council and in charge of local arrangements for the dinner, the choice of rates for general hospitalization and for executives is the result of considerable publicity given the subject recently. Hospital rates in comparison with hospital rates to be taken as a workable basis, he said.

REMOVAL OF INFECTED TONSILS

May CURE BAD HAIT

Some teachers were discussing recently the number of cases in their schools of persistent bed-wetters who had been treated with various forms of infected and overstrained tonsils. This merely follows out the usual line of reasoning on this subject. When ever a child is out of bed with a child there is no way to find out if there are any defects which may be corrected. The defects may seem to be far removed from the tonsils, but the tonsils and bed-wetting, the two seem to have a definite relationship. The following letter is a concrete instance of the cure of a tonsil case by this method.

Mrs. F. S. writes: "I read in your column of Mrs. O. L. Y. wanting help for her 2-year-old girl who has been a persistent bed-wetter. I took her to a doctor and he said she had a tonsil. I took her to another doctor who gave her medicine and put her on a diet which I followed faithfully for four months and took her urine to be examined regularly. This helped but as soon as I stopped the bed-wetting would return. At 2 years old it was the same. Next Sunday

All players are urged to read without fail the announcement of an Answer Book in next Sunday's Times that will be an invaluable aid in winning a prize.

Numerous queries have been received from players who want to know how they may give more than one title to each picture. Thus far it has been necessary to obtain extra copies of the Picture Coupons for each additional title. The Answer Book to be announced next Sunday will eliminate the necessity of extra coupons, enabling players to give as many as three titles to each of the 77 pictures in handy cook form.

Players who already have their catalogues may obtain new pictures by sending in stamp. With the Answer Book, however, extra sets of pictures will not be needed—only the daily picture printed in the Times. Don't miss next Sunday's Picturegame announcement.

VIAJUD COST SET

City Engineer Shad has reported to the City Council that the estimated cost of a viaduct over the Southern Pacific Railroad tracks at North Spring and Main street is $190,000 not including the cost to adjacent property.
The City Engineer said that while this viaduct would be of benefit to traffic, no funds are available for the construction."Ask the folks who eat them.""Give Me a Handful!"
"Give Me two Handfuls!"That's the way the youngsters
ask for "Petite Soda Wafers."
Like them? Who could resist their fresh, crisp daintiness?"Petites" are enjoyed by

—for there are no sodas that quite equal them.

Tendered to Official

Three hundred and fifty persons gathered at the Elks Auditorium yesterday afternoon and evening to honor two soldierly figures, one short, brisk and spry, the other tall and nonchalant. The first was Elbridge L. Hawes, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; the other was his aide, William H. Noll, adjutant-general of the organization.

Elaborate ceremonies and a banquet marked the day's tribute to the pair, and to Mrs. Hawk.

Among the speakers at the afternoon session were W. A. Packard, department commander for California; Nevada, who gave the opening address of welcome; Mrs. Grace Willard, national councilor of the Women's Relief Corp; Eda M. Wheeler, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic; Dr. O. H. Menotti, assistant adjutant-general of this department; Mrs. Cox Abbott, department president of the G. A. R.; John E. Keeler, of the national board of administration for the national homes; Mayor Coyer, Supervisor Jack Bean and Al Deems, commander of the sons of Union veterans.

At the conclusion of the banquet in the evening gifts from the local members and associates were presented to the commander-in-chief by Commander Packard; to the adjutant-general by Dr. Menotti, and to Mrs. Hawk by Mrs. Packard.

Sixty color bearers formed the guard of honor, and the visiting officials during the exercises. Members of the Grand Army of the Republic and associated bodies declare it the most notable gathering in the

James Cruze Leaves Paris

Film circles were abuzz yesterday when it was disclosed that James Cruze had resigned his position as the supervisor of Fox and head of the Metropolitan studios.

Cruze, maker of "The Covered Wagon" and "Old Ironsides," in addition to the night he had left Paris said:

"There was a clause in my contract which made it possible for me to leave the organization after six months. I am leaving because not only this, but things simply didn't work out as I had expected."

Cruze said that his plane for the Orient was to leave Paris on Saturday night, although it is known that he is considering at least two important offers.

Leslie Has Talkie, Too!

Not to be outdone by Fox's Movie tones, not Warner Brothers' Vitaphone, Paramount and Jesse L. Lasky are working on a picture along the line of the talking and musical idea in connection with pictures.

While it will probably be several months before the invention is on the market, it is understood that the new device is a talking and speaking one.

It is rumored that it is cheaper and more easily handled than anything yet invented.
